Gui Element	Formating Standards
	scrollbar body is 12 points wide, 25% grey background, black pen scrollbar arrow box is 12x12 points square, white background, black pen scrollbar arrow is 8 points wide at base, 8 points high isololes triangle, white background, black pen scrollbar slider box is 10x10 points square, white background, black pen
Label	buttons are 16 point high rounded rectangles, white background, black pen, with 1 point bottom-right black shadow rounded button corner is 4 point radius quarter circle button widqth is the same in a given panel (a window or bounded subarea within a window), where all buttons are as wide the widest button in the panel, based on the widest label button label is 12 point courier font, horizontally and vertically centered within button spacing for the widest button label is 4 points on the right and left sides
minor label Major label: typed text	typeable text box is 12 point high rectangle, white background, black pen, no shadow general text is left justified in text box, 4 points from the left edge numeric text is right justified in text box, 4 points from the right edge text box major label is 12 point courier font ending in a colon charcter, immediately to the left of the text box (note that "immediately" to the left means that the normal whitespace on the right of the fixed-width colon character visually separates the text from the left edge of the box) text box minor label is 10 point courier font, no colon, left or right justified per box contents
Label: typed or selected text ▼	typeable text box with selectable entries is the same as the text box, with a down-arrow box, 2 points to the right down arrow box is 12x12 point square, white background, black pen, with 1 point bottom-right black shadow down arrow is 6 points wide at base, 6 points high, black background, black pen
Label: selected text ▼	non-typeable text-selection box is same as typeable text box, with 1 point bottom-right black shadow and black down arrow (as above) vertically centerd, 4 points from the right edge of the box
X Y Z	unselected check box is 10x10 point square, white background, black pen, with 1 point bottom-right shadow selected check box is same as unselected, with two 1 point black lines from corner to corner check box label is 12 point courier font, horizontally centered, 1 point above top of box
X Y Z	unselected radio button is 10 point diameter circle, white background, black pen, with 1 point bottom-right shadow selected radio button is same as unselected with 5 point black circle in the center radio button label is 12 point courier font, horizontally centered, 1 point above top of button
-- tool-specific dialog windows --	dialog windows containing the above elements have 16 point whitespace on all sides of smallest enclosing rectangle of all contents

Other Notes:
(1) Use 12 pixel vertical separation between elements in dialogs.
(2) When checkbox or ratio button lbels appear to the right, use 3 point separation.