Software Accessibility Template
Name: Date:
Group:
Software Analyzed:
Text reader or other software used:
Provides keyboard equivalents for all actions. These actions must not interfere with keyboard accessibility features built into the operating system: (5 = very good, 1 = very poor)
5
Provides a visual focus indicator that traverses interactive objects as focus changes:
(5 = very good, 1 = very poor)
5
Images, colors, controls, objects, and icons that represent program elements are accompanied with descriptive text labels: (5 = very good, 1 = very poor)
$5 \square 4 \square 3 \square 2 \square 1 \square n/a \square$
Provide an option to display a visual cue for all audio alerts:
yes□ no□ n/a
Provide accessible alternatives to significant audio and video elements:
yes □ no□ n/a
Text reader compatibility: (5 = very good, 1 = very poor)
5 4 3 2 1 n/a 1
Inherits system font, size, and color settings for all user interface controls: (5 = very good, 1 = very poor) $5 \square 4 \square 3 \square 2 \square 1 \square n/a \square$
Use of blinking text, objects, or other elements: (5 = none, 1 = excess)
$5 \square 4 \square 3 \square 2 \square 1 \square n/a \square$
Documentation is provided in an accessible format with keyboard shortcuts: (5 = very good, 1 = very poor)
$5 \square 4 \square 3 \square 2 \square 1 \square n/a \square$
What are the accessibility strengths of this application?
1)
2)
$ 3 \rangle$
What are the accessibility weaknesses of this application?
1)
2)
3)