CSC 225
Homework #8

1. Book problem 16.7

2. Book problem 16.11. Assume that the code is compiled for the LC-3 – that integers and characters each take up one memory location. (As discussed in class, a C integer takes up 4 bytes on a Unix machine, and a character only takes up 1.)

3. Pointer problems!